Hi, my name is Asha White and I represent a defendant named [REDACTED] in Norfolk Superior Court. According to the discovery I have received from the commonwealth, you were the chemist that tested the substances that form the basis of the complaint against Mr. Hadley (I attached two documents so you can track down the case I am speaking of). I am writing to see if there is any possibility that I could have a meeting with you in order to be better prepared for the upcoming trial. The weights and results of the testing of the substances are a very important issue in this case, so I was hoping I could speak with you in order to familiarize myself with the process. Please email or call me at your earliest convenience.
